

UREL-1202*Group Verbs/Phrasal Verb/Idioms (UREL-1204/1202)

Act on/upon (to harm): Smoking will act upon your health.

Ask for (pray for/beg) He came here to ask for my help.

Bear with (tolerate) I can't bear with such insult.

Bring about (cause to happen) Probably this decision will bring about a disaster in the economy.

Bring up (rear): I was brought up by my uncle.

Blow out (extinguish) Blow out the lamp.

Break into (enter by force) The robber broke into the house at midnight.

Break out (spread suddenly) Cholera broke out in the village.

Burst into (express emotion) She burst into tears seeing her dead son.

Call at (visit) :I shall call at your office tomorrow.

Call for (demand): The teacher call for an explanation.

Call on (meet) He called on me in my office.

Call up (remember) I cannot call up your name.

Carry away (remove) The wounded man was carried away to the hospital.

Carry on (continue) He will carry on the business.

Carry out (obey) You must carry out my order.

Come across (meet) I cam across the lame man on the way.

Come of (to be born) He comes of a respectable family.

Come off (take place) Our annual sports came off yesterday.

Come round (recover) The patient will come round soon.

Cut down (reduce) Try to cut down your budget.

Cut off (dislocate) The robbers cut off the telephone connection.

Do away with (abolish) We should do away with our bad habits.

Deal in (carry on business) He deals in rice.

Draw back (retreat) The army is now drawing back.

Drive away (remove from the scene) He was driven away from the village.

Fill in /up (complete) Fill in /up the gap.

Get at (reach) The books are locked and I can't get at them.

Get away (escape) The thief could not get away with the necklace.

Get down (descend) He got down from the bus.

Get into (ascend) He got into the train.

Give in (yield) The enemies gave in at last.

Give up (abandon) Try to give up your bad habit.

Go on (continue) Go on with your studies.

Go through (read) He has gone through the book.

Hand over (place something or someone at the custody of some other) The thief was handed over to the police.

Hang On (Depend upon) What is the use of hanging on others for a job?

Keep away (remain at a distance) Keep yourself away from evil company.

Keep up with (keep pace with) Try to keep up with the changing world.

Lay down (sacrifice) He laid down his life for the sake of his country.

Look after (take care of) Mother looked after her child.

Look down upon (hate) Don't look down upon the poor.

Look for (search) He is looking for a job.

Look forward (expect eagerly) They look forward to you help.

Look over (examine) I have looked over your papers.

Make out (understand) I can't make out your words.

Make up (complete) I still need one lac taka to make the loss.

Make up one's mind (resolve) He made up his mind to go there.

Put down (write) Put down your name on the black board.

Put off (postpone) The meeting was put off.

Put on (wear) Put on you dress.

Put out (extinguish) He put out the lamp.

Put up with (Tolerate) I can't put up with such insults.

Run after (chase) The villager ran after the thief.

Run away (flee) The criminal ran away seeing the police.

Run out (become exhausted) His patience id running out.

Run over (knock down): The woman was run over by the car.

Send for (summon) Please send for a doctor.

Set aside (reserve) He set aside a part of his income for charity.

Take after (resemble) she takes after her mother.

Take down (write) Take down the note in short.

Tell on/ upon (affect) Overeating may tell upon your health.

Turn against (become hostile). They turned against us.

Work out (solve) He could not work out the sum.

ABC (primary knowledge): He doesn't know ABC of computer.

Achilles' heel (weak point) : I am trying to find out his Achilles' heel.

All on a sudden: (suddenly) : All on a sudden a tiger came out of the forest.

All but (nearly): My assignment is all but completed.

All in all (supreme): He is all in all in the family.

Apple of discord (matter of dispute) : The paternal property is an apple of discord between the two brothers.

At a loss (puzzled) Hearing the bad news I was at a loss.

At daggers drawn (at enmity): The two brothers are at daggers drawn.

At least (at the lowest): You will have to study at least four hours a day if you want to get the highest grade.

At one's wits end (puzzled): When the police caught him he was at his wit's end.

At random (without any aim) : I found him walking there at random.

At sixes and sevens (scattered): The books on the table are kept at sixes and sevens.

At one's own sweet will (according to his wishes): None in the society can behave at his own sweet will.

At the eleventh hour (at the last moment): The doctor came at the eleventh hour.

Bag and baggage (with all belongings) He left the place bag and baggage.

Bed of roses (comfortable condition) Life is not a bed of roses.

Black sheep (person of bad character) He is a black sheep in his family.

Beggar description (can not be described) The miseries of the flood affected people beggar description.

A bolt from the blue (something quite unexpected): The news of the death of his friend came to him as a bolt from the blue.

By no means (in no way): I shall help him by no means.

By leaps and bounds (very rapidly): The prices of essential goods are increasing by leaps and bounds.

By hook or by crook (by fair means and founs) He wants to get the job by hook or by crook.

Bird's eye view (a narrow idea) : You can not comment upon something by your birds eye view.

Bone of contention (matter of dispute): The paternal property was a bone of contention between two brothers.

Bosom friend (close friend) Arif and Rafiq are bosom friends.

Bring to light (make open): An impartial investigation will bring the real fact to the light.

Bring to book (punish): The criminal will be brought to book by the court.

Built castle in the air (indulge in unrealistic dream): Don't waste your time in building castle in the air.

Breathe one's last (die): The old man breathed his last yesterday.

Catch red handed (catch at the time of doing the mischief): He was caught red handed while taking the bribe.

Cats and dogs (torrential rain): It was raining cats and dogs.

Cock and bull story (absurd story): None will believe his cock and bull story.

Crying need (urgent need): Increasing the electricity is the crying need of the present time.
 Crocodile tears (pretended sympathy) He shed crocodile's tears at our miseries.
 Cut a sorry figure (get poor marks): You will cut a sorry figure in English if you neglect in this way.
 Dead against: (bitterly against) I am dead against student politics.
 Dead of night (midnight) The robbery was held at the dead of night.
 End in smoke (fail): All our efforts will end in smoke if there is a strike tomorrow.
 Fish out of water (in an uneasy situation) He was like fish out of water in the new environment.
 For good (for ever): He left the place for good.
 Gala day (a day of festivity) The day of Eid is a gala day for a Muslim.
 Get rid of (be free from): I want to get rid of this unfavourable situation.
 From hand to mouth (live by hard labor): The poor man lives from hand to mouth.
 Hard and fast (rigid/tough): There is no hard and fast rule in this matter.
 Heart and soul (with all energy): If you try heart and soul you will succeed.
 Hue and cry (a noise): We rushed to the spot hearing the hue and cry.
 Hush money (bribe) A police was caught while taking the hush money.
 Household word (familiar name) RAB is a household word now.
 In a fix (puzzled) Hearing the bad news I was in a fix.
 In full swing (in full speed): Our classes are going on in full swing.
 In order to (with a view to ) He is working hard in order to be rich.
 In lieu of (in place of ) In lieu of going to university he went to the market.
 In black and white (in writing) submit the proposal in black and white.
 Ins and outs (full details) We need to discuss the ins and outs of the matter before taking a decision.
 In vogue (in fashion) This dress is not in vogue at present.
 In force (functioning) This act is not in force now.
 In a nutshell (briefly) Describe the matter in a nutshell.
 In the long run (ultimately) He will have to suffer in the long run.
 Irony of fate (by bad luck) He could not succeed by irony of fate.
 Lion's share (major part): My father owns the lion's share of the company.
 Lame excuse (bad plea/pretext) He did not attend the meeting showing a lame excuse.
 Kith and kin (near relatives): I have no kith and kin in this town.
 Maiden speech (first speech) : His maiden speech was attractive.
 Man of letters (a scholar) Dr. Mohammad Shahidullah was a man of letters.
 Man of straw (worthless man) A man of straw like you can not shine in life.
 Nip in the bud (destroy at the early stage): Terrorism should be nipped in the bud.
 Null and void (invalid): This law has been null and void now.
 Now and then (occasionally) He comes here now and then.
 Of course (certainly) I shall of course help you whenever you face any problem.
 On the contrary (just opposite) I helped him: on the contrary he criticized me.
 On the wane (decreasing) His popularity is on the wane.
 Out of date (old fashioned) This dress is out of date.
 Out of doors (out side) Take an umbrella if you go out of doors.
 Out of sorts (not well) I feel out of sorts today.
 Part and parcel (an integral part) Now a days electricity has become a part and parcel of our life.
 Pros and cons (details) We need to consider the pros and cons of the proposal.
 Rank and file (common men) We should pay attention to the rank and file of the country.
 Red letter day (memorable day) the 21st February is a red letter day in the history of Bangladesh.

