Reading Part- 10

1. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow:

Most men long for wealth. Wealth, they think, brings happiness. But, often, wealth brings a great deal of worry without much happiness. A millionaire is a very wealthy man, of course, but his great wealth is also a great responsibility. He may have many large estates and factories. Estates and factories usually need a lot of attention. There may be disputes between the millionaire and his workers over one trouble or another. These disputes may lead to strike. In this case the millionaire may lose a lot of money. Or some gangster may kidnap the millionaire's child and demand thousands of pounds to return the child safe and sound. A very rich man, therefore, in spite of his great wealth, may not have an easy life. He has many worries. These worries may be greater than the worries of a poor man.

Reading Part- 10

1. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow:

Silk is a textile that is useful as well as beautiful. It comes from the cocoons of the silkworm. There are four stages in the life of the silkworm. First, there is an egg. The egg hatches and a kind of caterpillar known as a silkworm comes out. It eats, grows and bursts out of its skin several times. It then spins a long, slender thread and winds the thread round and round its body. It goes to sleep in this silken nest or cocoon. The silkworm is now a chrysalis. Inside the cocoon the chrysalis changes into butterfly. It then breaks out of its cocoon for the last stage of its life, as an insect. But many millions of silkworms do not live to become butterflies. To get the silk, the breeders of silkworm kill the chrysalises inside the cocoons by the use of hot steam. Every yard of silk means the death of thousands of silkworms in the chrysalis stage.
