Translation:

SUMMARY: This hadith explains that if a person has four specific characteristics, they are considered to be a hypocrite.

Abu Huraira reported: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, “Among the signs of a hypocrite are three, even if he fasts and prays and claims to be a Muslim: when he speaks he lies, when he gives a promise he breaks it, and when he is trusted he betrays.”

It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah b. 'Amr that the Prophet observed: "There are four characteristics, whoever has them all is a pure hypocrite, and whoever has one of its characteristics, he has one of the characteristics of hypocrisy, until he gives it up: When he speaks he lies, when he makes a covenant he betrays it, when he makes a promise he breaks it, and when he disputes he resorts to obscene speech". In the narration of Sufyan (one of the narrators) it is: "And if he has one of them, he has one of the characteristics of hypocrisy".

EXPLANATIONS:

This hadith explains the characteristics of hypocrisy and how it can be identified in people. It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah b. 'Amr that the Prophet observed that there are four characteristics which, if someone has all of them, they are considered to be a pure hypocrite. These four characteristics include lying when speaking, breaking covenants or promises made, betraying agreements and using obscene language when in dispute with someone else. If someone has one or more of these traits then they have one characteristic of hypocrisy until they give it up and change their behavior for the better. This hadith teaches us to stay away from such behaviors as it will lead us down a path towards hypocrisy which is not desirable in Islam as it goes against its teachings and values.

What is hypocrisy in Islam?

Hypocrisy in Islam is a serious sickness and a great crime. It means making an outward display of Islam whilst inwardly concealing disbelief. Hypocrisy is more dangerous than disbelief and the punishment for it is more severe, because it is disbelief mixed with Islam and its harmful effects are greater. Hence Allah will put the hypocrites in the lowest level of Hell, as He says (interpretation of the meaning):

{Verily, the hypocrites will be in the lowest depth (grade) of the Fire; no helper will you find for them.} [Al-Nisa 4:145]

The hypocrites are always confused, always planning deceit and plots. Although outwardly they appear to be with the believers, inwardly they are with the disbelievers. So sometimes they are inclined towards the believers and sometimes they are inclined towards the disbelievers.

{(They are) swaying between this and that, belonging neither to these nor to those; and he whom Allah sends astray, you will not find for him a way (to the truth — Islam)} [al-Nisa 4:143 – interpretation of the meaning]

Because of the corruption of their hearts, the hypocrites are the most averse of mankind to the religion of Allah, as Allah tells us about them (interpretation of the meaning):

{And when it is said to them: ‘Come to what Allah has sent down and to the Messenger (Muhammad),’ you (Muhammad) see the hypocrites turn away from you (Muhammad) with aversion} [al-Nisa 4:61]

The dealings of the hypocrites revolve around their own interests. When they meet the believers, they make a show of belief and loyalty, in order to deceive the believers and as an action of dissimulation, hoping for whatever good and war-booty they have. But when they meet their masters and chiefs, they say, we are with you in your shirk and kufr. Allah says concerning them (interpretation of the meaning):

{And when they meet those who believe, they say: “We believe,” but when they are alone with their Shayatin (devils — polytheists, hypocrites), they say: “Truly, we are with you; verily, we were but mocking

Allah mocks at them and gives them increase in their wrong-doing to wander blindly} [al-Baqarah 2:14-15]

Characteristics of the hypocrites

The hypocrites have many characteristics, the worst and most serious of which is disbelief in Allah. Allah says (interpretation of the meaning):

{And when it is said to them (hypocrites): ‘Believe as the people (followers of Muhammad, Al-Ansar and Al-Muhajirun) have believed,’ they say: ‘Shall we believe as the fools have believed?’ Verily, they are the fools, but they know not} [al-Baqarah 2:13]

Among their characteristics are enmity and envy (hasad) towards the believers, as Allah says (interpretation of the meaning):

{If good befalls you (O Muhammad), it grieves them, but if a calamity overtakes you, they say: ‘We took our precaution beforehand’ and they turn away rejoicing} [al-Tawbah 9:50]

Among their characteristics is mockery of Allah, His Messenger and His religion. Allah says (interpretation of the meaning):

{If you ask them (about this), they declare: ‘We were only talking idly and joking.’ Say: ‘Was it at Allah, and His Ayaat (proofs, evidences, verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.) and His Messenger that you were mocking?’

Make no excuse; you disbelieved after you had believed} [al-Tawbah 9:65-66]

Among their characteristics is that they spread corruption on earth, with disbelief, hypocrisy and sins. Allah says (interpretation of the meaning):

{And when it is said to them: ‘Make not mischief on the earth,’ they say: ‘We are only peacemakers.’

Verily, they are the ones who make mischief, but they perceive not} [al-Baqarah 2:11-12]

Among their characteristics are slander and lies. Allah tells us about them (interpretation of the meaning):

{They swear by Allah that they are truly of you while they are not of you, but they are a people (hypocrites) who are afraid (that you may kill them)} [al-Tawbah 9:56]

Among their characteristics is that they enjoin what is evil and forbid what is good, and they are stingy with their wealth. Allah says concerning them (interpretation of the meaning):

{The hypocrites, men and women, are one from another; they enjoin (on the people) Al-Munkar (i.e. disbelief and polytheism of all kinds and all that Islam has forbidden), and forbid (people) from Al-Ma’ruf (i.e. Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam orders one to do), and they close their hands [from giving (spending in Allah’s Cause) alms]. They have forgotten Allah, so He has forgotten them. Verily, the hypocrites are the Fasiqun (rebellious, disobedient to Allah)} [al-Tawbah 9:67]

Among their characteristics are greed and avarice:

{And of them are some who accuse you (O Muhammad) in the matter of (the distribution of) the alms. If they are given part thereof, they are pleased, but if they are not given thereof, behold! They are enraged!} [al-Tawbah 9: 58 – interpretation of the meaning]

Among their characteristics are those which were described by the Messenger (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him):

“There are four (characteristics), whoever has all of them is a complete hypocrite, and whoever has some of them has some element of hypocrisy, unless he gives it up: when he speaks, he lies; when he makes a treaty, he betrays it; when he makes a promise, he breaks it; when he quarrels, he resorts to insults.” (Narrated by Muslim, 53)

Among their characteristics is a concern with appearances and fancy speech whilst they are inwardly corrupt. Allah says concerning them (interpretation of the meaning):

{And when you look at them, their bodies please you; and when they speak, you listen to their words. They are as blocks of wood propped up. They think that every cry is against them. They are the enemies, so beware of them. May Allah curse them! How are they denying (or deviating from) the Right Path?} [al-Munafiqun 63:4]

If the disbelievers are obvious enemies from without, then the hypocrites are hidden enemies from within. They are more harmful and more dangerous to the Muslims, because they mix with them and know their situation. Allah has decreed that the ultimate destiny of the disbelievers and hypocrites will be in Hell:

{Surely, Allah will collect the hypocrites and disbelievers all together in Hell} [al-Nisa 4:140 – interpretation of the meaning]

Punishment of the hypocrites

But because of the seriousness of the harm they cause, the hypocrites will be in the lowest level of Hell, as Allah says (interpretation of the meaning):

{Verily, the hypocrites will be in the lowest depth (grade) of the Fire} [al-Nisa 4:145]

Because the danger posed to the Muslim ummah by the disbelievers and hypocrites is so great, Allah commanded His Messenger to strive against them:

{O Prophet (Muhammad)! Strive hard against the disbelievers and the hypocrites, and be severe against them; their abode will be Hell, and worst indeed is that destination} [al-Tahrim 66:9 – interpretation of the meaning]

Lecture : 16 : Martyrdom in Allah's Cause

عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ " الشُّهَدَاءُ خَمْسَةٌ الْمَطْعُونُ، وَالْمَبْطُونُ، وَالْغَرَقُ

QUICK LESSONS:

Have faith in God ; Fight for what you believe is right ; Trust God's judgement ; Sacrifice your life if needed .

EXPLANATIONS:

This hadith explains that people who die due to certain causes are considered martyrs in the eyes of Allah. These causes include plague, abdominal disease, drowning or a falling building etc., and those who die while fighting for the cause of Allah. The Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) is informing us that these people will receive a great reward from Allah for their sacrifice and will be regarded as martyrs. This hadith teaches us to have faith in God and trust that He will reward us for our sacrifices no matter how small they may seem. It also encourages us to fight for what we believe is right even if it means sacrificing our lives because we know that God will reward us greatly for it.

Kinds of Shaheed

In fact "Shaheed", is a specific term, used in the Holy Quran and Sunnah. It has certainly a specific meaning and one should be careful before applying this term to a person and you should ascertain whether he is really qualified to be called a "Shaheed."

According to Islamic Jurisprudence, "Shaheed" is of two kinds:

1. Shaheed in the real sense.
2. Shaheed in the constructive sense.

Shaheed in the real sense is a Muslim who has been killed during "Jihad" or has been killed by any person unjustly. Such a person has two characteristics different from common people who die on their bed. Firstly, he should be buried without giving him a ritual bath. However, the prayer of the Janazah shall be offered on him and he shall also be given a proper kafin (burial shroud). Secondly, he will deserve a great reward in the Hereafter and it is hoped that Allah Almighty shall forgive his sins and admit him to Jannah. It is also stated in some of the traditions that the body of such a person remains in the grave protected from contamination or dissolution.

As compared to this kind of "Shaheed" a Shaheed in a constructive sense is a person who has been promised by the Holy Prophet Sall-Allahu alayhi wa sallam to get a reward of a Shaheed in the Hereafter but is not taken as Shaheed with regard to the rules of burial. It means that the dead body has to be bathed like a dead body of any other person. The Holy Prophet Sall-Allahu alayhi wa sallam has included in this category of Shaheed a large number of persons such as a person who has died in a Plague or who has died in an unexpected accident, like a fire or a traffic accident or who has been drowned in the water or a woman who has died during the delivery of her child etc.

Allama Jalaluddin Suyuti, a well-known scholar of Islamic disciplines, has collected all the Hadiths relating to this kind of Shaheed and has come to the conclusion that there are thirty categories mentioned by the Holy Prophet Sall-Allahu alayhi wa sallam who can deserve to be called Shaheed in this sense. But in the normal course, the word "Shaheed" is applied only for the first kind. However, it is not prohibited to use the word for a person who falls in any of the categories mentioned in the second kind.

It is evident from the above discussion that the word "Shaheed" can only be used for a Muslim and cannot be applied to a non-Muslim at all. Similarly, the term cannot be used for a person who has been rightly killed as a punishment of his own offence.

Lecture : 17 : Topic: Selected text on encouragement on good deeds.

عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ -رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا- عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيمَا يَرْوِي عَنْ رَبِّهِ تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالَى قَالَ : إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَتَبَ الْحَسَنَاتِ وَالسَّيِّئَاتِ ثُمَّ بَيَّنَ ذَلِكَ , فَمَنْ هَمَّ بِحَسَنَةٍ فَلَمْ يَعْمَلْهَا كَتَبَهَا اللَّهُ عِنْدَهُ حَسَنَةً كَامِلَةً وَإِنْ هَمَّ بِهَا فَعَمِلَهَا كَتَبَهَا اللَّهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ عِنْدَهُ عَشْرَ حَسَنَاتٍ إِلَى سَبْعِ مِائَةٍ ضِعْفٍ إِلَى أَضْعَافٍ كَثِيرَةٍ وَإِنْ هَمَّ بِسَيِّئَةٍ فَلَمْ يَعْمَلْهَا كَتَبَهَا اللَّهُ عِنْدَهُ حَسَنَةً كَامِلَةً وَإِنْ هَمَّ بِهَا فَعَمِلَهَا كَتَبَهَا اللَّهُ سَيِّئَةً وَاحِدَةً.

Translation:

Narrated by Bukhari and Muslim on the authority of Ibn ‘Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him and his father) that the Messenger of Allah transmitted it from his Lord (be Blessed and highly Exalted).

"Allah has written down the good deeds, and bad deeds and then He has elaborated them. If anybody intends to do a good deed but he does not execute this, then Allah (Swt) will write in his account as a full good deed, and if he intends to do a good deed then he accomplishes this then, Allah (the Great and Almighty) records this in his account with Him as ten times to seven hundred times and to multiple times. And if someone intends to do a bad deed but he does not execute this, then Allah (Swt) writes to his account with Him as one good deed, and if he intends to do it then he commits this (sin), Allah (Swt) records this as one bad deed."

Vocabulary:

الحسنات : n.pl. Good deeds , sing. حَسَنَةٌ Anything which is approved by Allah (Swt) and His Messenger. It is synonymous to (المعروف).

السيئات : n. pl. bad deeds, sing opposite of سَيِّئَةٌ i.e. anything which is not approved by Allah (Swt) and His Messenger , it is synonymous to (المنكر).

هَمَّ v.t. (this is usually used with prep. ب to intend to do something.

عَمِلَ -v.t. past, عملها, he did it. لم يعملها he did not do it.

ضِعْف n. sing. pl أَضْعَاف ,time (times) multiple of sth.

أَضْعَافٌ كَثِيرَةٌ , many times.

Terminologies:

الحسنات & السيئات: these are two different terms each of them is opposite to the other. The word حسنات is derived from the word حَسَن which means nice, good.e.g. رَجُلٌ نَوَّحَ حَسَن .

A person of good character, حَسَنُ الْوَجْهِ , a person having a nice complexion.

حَسَنَات means good deeds. The following verse of the Qur'an gives the similar meaning to which has been mentioned in this Hadith:

مَنْ جَاءَ بِالْحَسَنَةِ فَلَهُ عَشْرُ أَمْثَالِهَا وَمَنْ جَاءَ بِالسَّيِّئَةِ فَلَا يُجْزَى إِلَّا مِثْلُهَا (الانعام:160)

"Whoever brings a good deed shall have ten times the like thereof to his credit, and whoever brings an evil deed shall have only the recompense of the like thereof. (6:160)

Lessons from the Hadith:

This Hadith in fact signifies Allah's great favour on His servants and a divine invitation to practise good deeds and abstain from bad deeds.

This Hadith implicates that Allah (Swt) the Great and the Almighty is Just and Generous, in punishing the sinners and rewarding the doers of good deeds. The rewards for good deeds are multiplied by ten times to seven hundred times on account of His generosity and depending on the nature of good deeds and sincerely of the person who accomplishes this deed. On the contrary the punishment for evil deed is not more than the equal to the evil in terms of degree, and even if any of the Allah's servants intends to commit a sin but finally if he does not do it fearing Allah (Swt) then he will be awarded with one point of reward for not committing this evil. The verse of the Holy Qur'an which has been quoted earlier confirms this rule.

EXPLANATIONS:

This hadith is about praising Allah and seeking His forgiveness. It talks about the importance of submitting to Allah, believing in Him, relying on Him, turning to him for judgement and asking for His forgiveness. The Prophet Muhammad ﷺ taught us that we should praise Allah by saying “O Allah! To You is the praise”□ three times before we ask anything from him. We should also remember that He is the light of heavens and earth; He sustains all things; He is our Lord; He is true in His promises; He will meet us one day; Paradise exists as well as Hellfire; The Day of Judgment will come eventually. We must submit ourselves completely to God's will by saying “You are my Deity”□ no one else has the right to be worshipped but You alone. Lastly we must ask God's forgiveness by saying “forgive me what I have done before and after”□ so that our sins can be forgiven. This hadith teaches us how important it is to always remember God in our lives through prayer and supplication so that we can receive His mercy and blessings upon us all throughout our lives here on earth as well as hereafter in paradise InshaAllah!

Kinds of Prayer and Tahajjud

Tahajjud prayer is a nafl or voluntary prayer. It is a night prayer that is offered to attain mental strength and peace. It is also known to avert acts of sin. Prayer (Salat) — one of the Five Pillars of Islam, is segregated into four main types:

Fardh Salat: The most important prayer in Islam; it is compulsory, and missing it is considered to be a major sin.

Wajib Salat: It is compulsory, and missing Wajib Salat is regarded as a grave sin too.

Sunnah Salat: Known to be Prophet Muhammad’s (PBUH) practice, Sunnah Salat is again segregated into two categories, namely Muakkadah and Ghair Muakkadah. The former is to be practiced regularly, and missing the same is regarded as a sin. However, missing the latter one, which is said to be practiced intermittently by Prophet Muhammad (PBUH), is not considered punishable.

Nafl: The last of the four main types of prayer, Nafl is not compulsory and is usually performed for an extra virtue. Missing this prayer is not considered to be a sin.

Tahajjud meaning

Tahajjud is an Arabic word derived from “h-j-d”, which means to remain awake at night. Therefore, it is also known as the night prayer. As one has to perform Tahajjud in between the Isha and Fajr prayer, one has to wake up at night for the prayer. The prayer is highly rewarding due to its mentions in the Quran and by the Prophet (PBUH).

تَجَاوَزَ : v.t. باب تفاعل , with prep. عَنْ, to forgive sb's faults, and not to punish him, without prep., to cross a limit, تجاوز الحد. The word تَجَاوَزَ and جَاوَزَ may also be used alternatively.

الْخَطَأُ : n. sing. mistake pl. أخطاء , verb. أَخْطَأَ , to do mistake.

(باب سمع) نَسِيَ يَنْسِي v. participle ,adj. forgetfulness, النسيان

استكْرَهُوا : v .t. passive form, participle الاستكراه , باب استفعال . This form is used to imply asking s.th. Here it implies to press somebody to do something which he dislikes.

Terminologies

الْخَطَأُ و النسيان : This is a phrase in Islamic Shari'ah ,which is used when some wrongdoing is committed due to mistake or forgetfulness i.e. without intention to do this . According to the principles of Islamic Shari'ah one becomes liable for punishment if he violates a law of Shari'ah with intention and free will, but if any wrong is committed without intention then he will not be liable for punishment. Mistake and forgetfulness are two situations where it can be understood that the wrong has been committed unintentionally. This exemption from being punished is the special favour from Allah (Swt) for the Muslim Ummah as this Hadith indicates.

الاستكراه : This is also one of the three situations where a person is excused for his wrong doing. This is doing something under compulsion.

Teaching and lessons from the Hadith:

This is a comprehensive Hadith, which lays down the foundation of a fundamental principle of Islam, taking the human nature into consideration. That none shall be held responsible for any action done by him until he does it consciously, by intention for doing this and not under compulsion. This principle is in conformity with a prayer which Allah himself taught us to ask from Him, it reads as follows:

"Our Lord! punish us not if we forget or fall into error." (2:286)

This is also in conformity with another saying of the Prophet (Saw), which reads:

"Pen has been withdrawn from writing the sin of three persons from among my Ummah, they are : from a forgetful until he is aware, from a sleeping person until he wakes up, and from an insane unless he is healed."

As for one who is forced to do some bad deed, the scholars have made a distinction between two types of compulsion:

(a) Forcibly undertaken deed, and (b) Quasi- forcible deed.

The example of this forms is a woman or a girl who is kidnapped and forced to be raped. Under this situation the girl will not be punished or held accountable.

The example of the latter is one who has been compelled to commit a forbidden deed such as involvement in killing or plundering.

The jurists have said that under this situation where the incumbent has done this to ward off some danger, the necessities are valued according to the situation and status.

In conclusion we can say that simple plight does not entitle one to commit some forbidden act, unless the incumbent was compelled to do this finding no other alternative to avoid this.

Lecture : 20 : A believer must avoid bad habit.

عن أبي هريرة إن رسول الله ﷺ قال " لا يزني الزاني حين يزني وهو مؤمن ولا يسرق السارق حين يسرق وهو مؤمن ولا يشرب الخمر حين يشربها وهو مؤمن " . قال ابن شهاب فأخبرني عبد الملك بن أبي بكر بن عبد الرحمن أن أبا بكر كان يحدثهم هؤلاء عن أبي هريرة ثم يقول وكان أبو هريرة يلحق معهم " ولا ينتهب ثوبه ذات شرف يرفع الناس إليه أبصارهم حين ينتهبها وهو مؤمن " (رواه مسلم)

SUMMARY: A person who commits sins such as fornication, theft, drinking alcohol and plundering is not a believer until they repent.

Abu Huraira reported that the Messenger of Allah observed: The fornicator who fornicates is not a believer so long as he commits it and no thief who steals is a believer as long as he commits theft, and no drunkard who drinks wine is a believer as long as he drinks it'. Abdul-Malik b. Abi Bakr' narrated this on the authority of Abu Bakr b. Abdur-Rahman b. Harith and then said: Abu Huraira made this addition: No plunderer who plunders a valuable thing that attracts the attention of people is a believer so long as he commits this act.

QUICK LESSONS:

Seek repentance from Allah if you have committed any sin or wrongdoing .

EXPLANATIONS:

This hadith explains that a person who commits sins such as fornication, theft, drinking alcohol and plundering is not considered to be a believer until they repent from their wrongdoings. It teaches us that faith in Allah requires us to stay away from all forms of sin and wrongdoing and if we do commit any sin then we must seek repentance from Allah in order to be forgiven. This hadith also reminds us that even though we may have committed sins in the past, it does not mean that our faith has been lost forever - rather it is possible for us to regain our faith through sincere repentance and by turning back towards Allah with sincerity.

Three grades of Believers

ثُمَّ أَوْرَثْنَا الْكِتَابَ الَّذِينَ اصْطَفَيْنَا مِنْ عِبَادِنَا فَمِنْهُمْ ظَالِمٌ لِنَفْسِهِ وَمِنْهُمْ مُقْتَصِدٌ وَمِنْهُمْ سَابِقٌ بِالْخَيْرَاتِ بإِذْنِ اللَّهِ ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْفَضْلُ الْكَبِيرُ

‘Then We made Our chosen servants to inherit the Book [the Quran]. Among them is he who wrongs himself, and among them is he who is moderate, and still another who vies in performing good deeds with Allah’s permission. That is the greatest bounty.’ (Fatir 32) to inherit the Qur’an. People ﷺ In this ayah from juz 22, Allah tells us that He has chosen the ummah of Muhammad are accustomed to inheriting money and land, but the Believers have inherited something that is far more precious and valuable- the Qur’an. It is a great honor that Allah has chosen us and given us such a weighty gift without our having to work for it. Appreciating that fact should make us realize the responsibility associated with what we have inherited.

Allah then describes three categories of those believers.

The first group, dhalimun nafsii, are those who wrong themselves. They do oppression upon themselves by sinning- actions that will harm them or be detrimental in the next life if not in this life. They sometimes miss the obligatory actions and sometimes commit the forbidden actions whilst still having belief in Allah.

The second group, the muqtasid, are those who do the obligatory action and avoid the haram but do no more. They are the middle or moderate group.

And then there is the third group, the sabiqun. They are those who compete and vie to do the best deeds of all. They certainly do the obligatory actions, and they certainly stay away from the forbidden. They engage in the encouraged and rewardable (mandub) action and avoid the disliked (makruh) and are cautious even with the permissible (mubah) lest it leads to sin. But whatever they do they remain humbly aware that it is only with Allah’s permission and grace that they are able to do so.

The scholars of tafsir add that the sabiqun will enter Jannah without an account, the muqtasid will enter through Allah’s mercy and have an easier account, whilst the dhalimun nafsii will be forgiven by the intercession of ﷺ. Similarly, the numbers of the sabiqun will be few, the muqtasid moderate and the dhalimun nafsii many.

Ramadhan is a time when we are naturally more aware of the state of our nafs and our relationship with Allah. It is thus a good opportunity to reflect on where we stand in terms of these three grades of Believers and start to make the changes that will bring us closer to Allah and His Pleasure.

مَوْتٌ : adj. and participle, opposite to حَيَاةٌ .Allah (Swt) says: أَلَيْسَ لَكُم مَّا أَحْسَنُ عَمَلًا “ He who created death and life, that He may try to identify which of you is best in-deed ”.(67:2)

Terminologies:

غَرِيبٌ : كَأَنَّكَ غَرِيبٌ is a person who has arrived at a place which is unknown to him, and who is among those people who do not know him, and who is in an environment which is not conducive and suitable for him.

As one who is غَرِيبٌ to a society or a place does not intend to stay there for longer period. So we should consider this world with the same view point like that of a foreigner who is stranger in a country.

Lessons from the Haddith:

This Hadith gives a guideline to a wise Muslim about his attitude towards this world and his intended role in this world.

It says that a wise Muslim should not consider this world as his place of attraction and permanent abode. Rather his attitude should be like that of a stranger in an unknown environment. He always keeps in his mind his permanent residence; he stays in the foreign country or place until his purpose is served. His every step is devoted to safe return to his real home with as much benefit as possible.

On the other hand, this Hadith also gives the importance of this world through comparing the people living here as the wayfarer and the strange person. Because one cannot lead his life being confused in a certain place having been totally disconnected from rest of the world, he rather requires to pass through different ways, visit different places for the purpose of reaching the real destination. The role of a Muslim should be the same and alike. He tries to draw the maximum benefit of his having in this world and cultivating for yielding grater benefit in the Hereafter. In this connection Allah (Swt) says:

(a) “O my people! Truly this life of the world is nothing but (quick passing) enjoyment, and verily, the Hereafter that is the home that will remain forever.” (40:39).

(b) “But seek with that (belongings) which Allah has bestowed on you, the home of the Hereafter, and forget not your portion of lawful enjoyment in this world.” (28:77).

However, this Hadith does not mean that a believer is not permitted to develop life on earth, and cannot fulfill his requirements, since developing his life constitutes, by Allah’s favor, the biggest step towards the success in the Hereafter. Allah (Swt) says:

“O you who believe! Eat of the lawful things that We have provided you with, and be grateful to Allah, if it is indeed He Whom you worship” (2:172).

Islam does not see this world (الدنيا) and the Hereafter (الأخرة) as two opposite things, such as seeking benefit in one leads to deprival from the other, rather both this world and the Hereafter are complementary to each other. Allah has taught us to ask from Him the benefit of both of these two worlds in a balanced way. He says:

“And of them there are some who say : “Our Lord! Give us in this world that which is good and in the Hereafter that which is good , and save us from the torment of the Fire! Those for them there will be allotted a share for what they have earned. And Allah is Swift at reckoning.” (2:201-202).

The last part of the Hadith is an excellent directive from the Prophet (Saw) to the Muslims about time awareness and time management in such an attractive way that each and every Muslim can be aware about the prime importance of his state of healthy physical condition, so that he can use his health attaining the highest reward based on the acts of servitude and social welfare works taking the benefit of his health.

Likewise this Hadith leads the Muslims to score the maximum possible limited credits through using the opportunity of his life. One can get the maximum benefit of his life if he considers every morning and evening as if this is the last morning and evening of his life, and if he considers each day as if it is the last day of his life.

This hadith teaches us that we should not be overly strict when it comes to religious practices and beliefs as this can lead to ruin. We should instead strive for moderation and balance when it comes to our faith so that we can stay on the right path. We should also remember that Allah is merciful and forgiving so we should not be too hard on ourselves or others when it comes to religious matters.

QUICK LESSONS: Follow a middle course in worship . Seek help from Allah at morn and at dusk and some part of night .

EXPLANATIONS:

It teaches us that the religion of Islam is easy to follow and should not be ﷺ This hadith by Prophet Muhammad made into a burden. We should strive to follow it in moderation, but if we cannot do so then we should do something close to it. Additionally, we should seek help from Allah at dawn, dusk, and night as these are times when our prayers are more likely to be answered. This hadith encourages us to stay connected with Allah throughout the day for guidance and support.

Moderation in Islam

The concept and virtue of moderation in Islam can be traced back to the Quran, where Allah s.w.t. says:

وَكَذَٰلِكَ جَعَلْنَاكُمْ أُمَّةً وَسَطًا لِتَكُونُوا شُهَدَاءَ عَلَى النَّاسِ وَيَكُونَ الرَّسُولُ عَلَيْكُمْ شَهِيدًا

“And it is thus that We appointed you to be the community of the middle way so that you might be witnesses to all humankind and the Messenger might be a witness to you...”

(Surah Al-Baqarah, 2:143)

What does moderation (wasat) or the ‘middle way’ mean? Scholars have different views on this. Moderation is the middle path between two extremes: excess and deficiency. The middle way between two opposite ends of extreme is virtue. For example, courage is the middle way between two opposite ends of vices which are cowardice and recklessness. Hence, moderation, or the middle way, is a virtuous position between extremes. That being said, moderation is not necessarily a position of perfection, rather it is a path broad enough to include anyone who denounces extreme tendencies.

Islam recognizes the line which separates moderation and extremism, even in matters of the religion itself. If a Muslim transgresses this ‘limit’ where it involves harm and making the religion more difficult beyond our capacity, it is then considered to be going against the religion. Allah s.w.t. says in the Quran,

لَا تَغْلُوا فِي دِينِكُمْ

“Do not exaggerate in your religion.”

(Surah An-Nisa, 4:171)

This illustrates that Islamic teachings are against extremism. Instead, Islam promotes mercy, kindness, moderation, fairness and justice. Although the verse above was originally directed to the people of the book (Jews and Christians), its message can be related to all readers, which is to stay away from extremism.

Furthermore, the Prophet s.a.w. also said in above hadith, warning us from resorting to extreme tendencies in our religious life.

In summary we can conclude some clear characteristics of moderation in Islam:

1. Islam is easy to practice and simplicity (not overburdening the self or others) is a preferred trait .1
2. Mercy is a trait that is inseparable from Islam
3. Islam favors gentleness and ethical conduct
4. Islam promotes peaceful approaches and is against outright violence.

لَوْ: If it were (had there been) , usually the word (لَوْ) is used to denote a connection related to the past e.g. لَوْ لَا (Had not there been Ali, Umar would have been destroyed). This word has been used here as a general condition, regardless of past, present and future.

تَوَكَّلُونَ: verb, present, in the measure of (تَفْعَل) ...depend on (keep your trust in)

حَقَّ: n. justly, properly (as described)

لَرَزَقَكُمْ: here the particle (لَ) is to denote stress (surely) رَزَقَ v.t. root رزق provision (e.g. food, water, livelihood).

He would have given you the provision of your livelihood.

الطَّيْرُ: n. sing. (pl. الطُّيُور) the bird .

تَغْدُو: v.i. root (غ د و) dawn (morning), تَغْدُو anything happens in the morning, here means goes out in the morning.

خِمَاصًا: n. pl. (sing. خَمِيس) hungry, empty stomach.

تَرُوح: v.t. root word (ر و ح) evening, تَرُوح anything happens in the evening. Here means comes back in the evening.

بِطَانًا: n. pl. (sing. بَطِين) full stomach.

Terminologies

تَوَكَّل: To depend or to keep trust in Allah. According to the Islamic belief tawakkul or depending on Allah is considered as an integral part of Iman. In many verses of the Qur'an this thing has been emphasized . to quote here for example:

فَعَلَيْهِ تَوَكَّلُوا إِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُسْلِمِينَ (يونس:84)(a)

“Put your trust in Him, if you are Muslims”. (10:84)

إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ الْمُتَوَكِّلِينَ (آل عمران:159) (b)

“Allah loves those who put their trust (in Him)”.

The logic behind tawakkul is that: A Muslim should believe that Allah is the Supreme authority to determine anything for each and every creature in this universe. In spite of the fact that we are to make efforts with a target to reaching the good but he should not think that the result is in his hand.

He is completely in Allah's hand. However, it does not mean that one should abandon making any effort and taking the means for that, but each and every body has to make proper efforts and depend on Allah for its consequence. This is why the Prophet (Saw) has urged us to make proper treatment when we fall ill and to take provision with us when we make a journey.

We should employ all the means at our disposal and pray to Allah(Swt) for granting positive result.

The role of the bird which has been mentioned in this Hadith is the proper scenario of tawakkul, because the birds come out from their nest in quest of provision and depend on Allah, as a result they come back to the nest in the evening while their stomachs are filled.

Lessons from the Hadith

This Hadith constitutes a solid foundation of the true meaning of tawakkul, which is one of the most influential issues related to one's attitude towards his essentials of life and livelihood. In this regard Allah (Swt) says:

Whoever fears Allah and keeps his duty to Him. He will make a way for him to get rid of every difficulty.

And He will provide him provision from (sources) he never could imagine before. (5:2-3)

In fact "tawkkul" means to place one's reliance on Allah (Swt) whole heartedly concerning bringing interests and benefits as well as warding off harms and evils.

It also means to realize one's conviction that Allah is the only One, Who gives and presents both advantages and disadvantages.

It is essential to mention here that paying attention to make the means does not contradict "tawkkul". This in fact is a part of "tawkkul".

Allah (Swt) says related to taking the preparation of defending the enemies:

" And make ready against them all you can of power including steeds of war (e.g. tank, planes, missiles artillery etc.) to threaten thereby the enemy of Allah and your enemy and others beside them whom you may not know (but) Allah does know them " (8:60)

EXPLANATIONS:

This hadith speaks about the beauty and loveliness that believers will experience in Paradise. It is said that every Friday, a north wind will blow which would scatter fragrance on their faces and clothes, adding to their beauty and loveliness. When they return to their family after this experience, they would have an added lustre to their beauty and loveliness which would be noticed by others. This hadith serves as a reminder for us of the great rewards awaiting us in the hereafter if we remain steadfast on our faith. It also encourages us to strive for good deeds so that we can attain these rewards promised by Allah SWT.

The 8 gates and 8 levels of Jannah

“And those who feared their Lord will be led to the Garden in crowds, until behold, they arrive there. Its gates will be opened, and its keepers will say: ‘Peace be upon you! You have done well! Enter here, to dwell therein.” (Quran 39:73)

As per Sahi and Al Bukhari, there are 100 levels of Jannah. The fact can be traced back from a hadith saying:

“Jannah has one hundred levels and between each level is remoteness like the remoteness between the earth and the sky”.

But with the inclusion of several other trustable narrations, scholars suggest that there are majorly seven levels of heaven in Islam. Muslims believe that an individual will enjoy the blessings and benefits of any level of heaven depending upon their deeds on earth.

The 8 Gates:

1. Baabus Salaah: Those who were consistent in observing their Salaah will be granted entry through this door.
2. Baabul Jihad: Those who participated in Jihad will be granted entry through this door.
3. Baabus Sadaqah: Those who frequently gave Sadaqah will be admitted into Jannah through this door.
4. Baabur Rayyaan: The people who constantly observed the fast will be granted entry through this door.
5. Baabul Hajj: Those who observe the pilgrimage will be admitted through this door.
6. Baabul Kaazimeenal Ghaiz Wal Aafina Anin Naas: This door is reserved for those who suppress their anger and pardon others.
7. Baabul Aiman: This door is reserved for the entry of such people who are saved from reckoning and chastisement (The Awliyah).
8. Baabuz Zikr: Those who excessively remembered Allah will be admitted through this door.

The 8 Levels:

1. Jannat al- Adn: “Adn” means “recidence” and “eternal place”. “(If you do so) He will forgive you your sins, and admit you into Gardens under which rivers flow, and pleasant dwelling in Gardens of ‘Adn [‘Adn (Edn) Paradise], that is indeed the great success.” (Surah as-Saf 12) “Allah promiseth to the believers, men and women, Gardens underneath which rivers flow, wherein they will abide – blessed dwellings in Gardens of Eden. And – greater (far)! – acceptance from Allah. That is the supreme triumph.” (Surah at-Tawbah 72)

2. Jannat al- Firdaws: “Firdaws” means “garden which has all kinds of plants”. It is also described as the garden therein the grape vines. Because the Jannat al- Firdaws is over all jannahs and is superior to them, it is advised to be asked primarily. (Kutub-i Sitta)

3. Jannat an-Naeem: “Naim” means a prosperous and peaceful life, living in wealth, welfare and blessings. “Lo! those who believe and do good works, their Lord guideth them by their faith. Rivers will flow beneath them in the Gardens of Delight. (Jannat-an Naim)” (Surah al Yunus, 9)

4. Jannat al- Mawa: “Mawa” means “place to take refuge; dwelling, home.” This level is also mentioned as the abode for the martyred (shahid) and the Mumins. “But as for those who believe and do righteous deeds, for them are the Gardens of Retreat (Jannat al-Mawa)- a welcome (in reward) for what they used to do.” (Surah as- Sajdah, 19)

5. Dar-ul Khuld: Khuld means being eternal, everlasting; eternity, immortality. “Say: Is that (doom) better or the Garden of Immortality (Dar-ul Khuld) which is promised unto those who ward off (evil)? It will be their reward and journey’s end.” (Surah al- Furqan, 15)

6. Dar-ul Maqaam: Means “the essence place to stay, land to dwell eternally, the safe place.” “Who, of His grace, hath installed us in the mansion of eternity, where toil toucheth us not nor can weariness affect us.” (Surah al -Fatir, 35)

7. Dar-us Salaam: Means home of peace and safety; abode of well-being. “For them will be the home of peace (Paradise) with their Lord. And He will be their Protector because of what they used to do.” (Surah al An’am, 127) Dar al-salaam is a place where its speech is salaam—meaning free of all negative and evil talk. As Allah (swt) describes, “They will not hear therein ill speech or commission of sin – Only a saying: ‘Peace, peace,’” (Qur’an, 56:25-26). It is dar al-salaam because there will be no enmity nor hatred among the inhabitants of Paradise. The Prophet ﷺ said, “They will neither have differences nor hatred amongst themselves; their hearts will be as if one heart,” (Bukhari).

8. Illiyyun: The highest level of Jannah for the most perfect muslims. “No! Indeed, the record of the righteous is in ‘illiyyun. And what can make you know what is ‘illiyyun? It is [their destination recorded in] a register inscribed” – 83:18-20. Nay!, verily, the record of the pious, that is, the record of the deeds of the believers who were sincere in their faith, is in ‘Illiyyūn — this is said to be the book [containing] all the good deeds of the angels and the believers from among the two heavy ones [sc. mankind and jinn]; but it is also said to be a place below the Throne in the seventh heaven.

Lecture : 25 Benefit of Remembrance of Allah (Swt).

عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: يَقُولُ اللَّهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ: أَنَا عِنْدَ ظَنِّ عَبْدِي بِي وَأَنَا مَعَهُ حِينَ يَذْكُرُنِي إِنْ ذَكَرَنِي فِي نَفْسِهِ ذَكَرْتُهُ فِي نَفْسِي وَإِنْ ذَكَرَنِي فِي مَلَأٍ ذَكَرْتُهُ فِي مَلَأٍ هُمْ خَيْرٌ مِنْهُمْ وَإِنْ تَقَرَّبَ مِنِّي شَبْرًا تَقَرَّبْتُ إِلَيْهِ ذِرَاعًا وَإِنْ تَقَرَّبَ إِلَيَّ ذِرَاعًا تَقَرَّبْتُ مِنْهُ بَاعًا وَإِنْ أَتَانِي يَمْشِي أَتَيْتُهُ هَرْوَلَةً. (رواه البخاري ومسلم و الترمذي و ابن ماجه).

Narrated by Bukhari, Muslim, Tirmidhi and Ibn Majah on the authority of Abu Hurayra (May Allah be pleased with him), that the Messenger of Allah (PBUH) said: Allah the Almighty has said: “ I am as My servant thinks about Me, and I am with him when he remembers me . If he remembers Me in himself, I remember him in Myself, and if he remember Me in congregation I remember him in a gathering better than that. If he draws near to Me a hand’s span, I draw near to him an arm’s length , if he closes to Me an arm’s length , I close to him a full hand , If he comes to Me walking , I go to him with haste .

Terminologies

التقرب إلى الله: literally means to draw nearer to Allah , technologically it is used to denote the state of a person which indicates his advanced and upgraded position that brings him amongst those who are beloved by Allah (Swt).

According to Islamic belief Allah (Swt) is beyond the imagination of being associated with any place, and as such it will not be suitable to think that Allah is existing in a particular place and a person becomes nearer to Him in position crossing the physical distances through the acts of ‘ibadah’ and performing the formal rituals.

Lessons from the Hadith

In the Hadith some examples using the material instruments for measurement have been given like شِبْر only because that the people can easily understand the benefit of doing good deeds and try to gain Allah's satisfaction.

This Hadith indicates that any act of ibadah, like remembrance of Allah and dedicated to gain His pleasure will be rewarded with double credit, rather more than that which is beyond his imagination.

So we should always remember Allah, fear His displeasure and try to obtain His pleasure through doing all those things which are identified by the Prophet of Allah (Pbuh) as good deeds, and refrain from all those things which are declared by the prophet (Saw) as bad deeds. Allah says:

(a) "Say o Muhammad! If you (really) love Allah then follow me, Allah will love you and forgive you your sins. And Allah is Oft-forgiving, Most Merciful.(3:31).

(b) Therefore remember Me (by praying glorifying), I will remember you, and be grateful to Me (for My countless favors on you) and never be ungrateful to Me", (2:152).

عن عبد الله بن عمرو- رضي الله عنهما : عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ : إِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ: " أَرْبَعٌ إِذَا كُنَّ فِيكَ لَا يَضُرُّكَ مَا فَاتَكَ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا : (أ) حِفْظُ أَمَانَةٍ (ب) وَ صِدْقُ حَدِيثٍ (ج) وَ حُسْنُ خَلِيقَةٍ (د) وَعِفَّةٌ فِي طُعْمَةٍ .(رواه أحمد و الطبراني).

Translation:

Ahmad and Tabarani have narrated on the authority of 'Abd Allah b. 'Amr (May Allah be pleased with both of them); he said that the Prophet of Allah (Peace be upon him) has said: there are four things, if these exist in you then whatever you have missed from the worldly affairs, that will not cause you any harm: (These are:)

- Protecting amanah (keeping the trust).
- Telling the truth.
- Good character.
- Purity in meal.

Vocabulary:

كُنْتُ : v, i. past. (3rd person plural form) . They exist, root (ك ن) to become. Auxiliary verb, which is frequently used in Arabic . Originally to denote that something had happened in the past, e.g. كَانَ زَيْدٌ عَالِمًا = Zayd was a scholar . كُنْتُ = I had seen you. But in many occasions it is used to denote existence of some quality in some one, e.g. كَانَ اللَّهُ : Allah is Merciful, Compassionate.

لَا يَضُرُّكَ : v.t.in negative sense. present tense, root (ض ر ر) to harm , will not harm you. Preposition (ك) is objective of the verb (يَضُرُّ) .

مَا فَاتَكَ : v.i+ object (prep. ك) missed from you. مَا فَاتَكَ = whatever is missed from you. (from among the worldly materials), here (ما) is (موصول) meaning whatever.

حَفِظَ : n. participle, to protect , to keep.

أَمَانَةٌ : n. sing. pl. أَمَانَات – trust, anything is kept in custody of any other person.

صِدْقٌ : n. participle, and also abstract noun , truthfulness.

حَدِيثٌ : n. sing., participle, speaking , speech, whatever uttered by the tongue which carries meaning is also called حُسْنُ حَدِيثٍ : n. abstract, nice, good.

عِفَّةٌ : n . abstract , purity, free from pollution, here in the meaning of lawful.

طُعْمَةٌ = n. participle, eating, meal, provision.

Terminologies:

جَفَظُ أَمَانَةٍ: It is an Islamic terminology , which literally means protecting the trust, and terminologically denotes, ensuring the safety and security of a thing which has been kept with someone's custody on trust.

This also includes fulfilling the commitments made to anyone and also discharging the responsibilities towards Allah (Swt), His Messenger, the parents, and the relatives as prescribed by Islam.

صِدْقُ حَدِيثٍ : Literally means truthfulness in speech. Truthfulness is one of the basic qualities of a Muslim, without which a Muslim cannot be considered as a sincere Muslim and failing to uphold this quality a person is considered as a hypocrite . On the other hand telling a lie is considered as a great sin in Islam.

حُسْنُ خَلِيقَةٍ : This terminology is combination of two different words e.g. (حُسْن) which means good, nice and (خَلِيقَةٍ) which means character , manner, combinedly it means – good character, nice manner. The role model of good character is that which has been practised by the Prophet (Saw) himself, as he has been certified by Allah (Swt) as declared in the Qur'an that the Prophet (Saw) is on the highest degree of Excellent character. وَإِنَّكَ لَعَلَى خُلُقٍ عَظِيمٍ

عِفَّةٌ فِي طُعْمَةٍ : عِفَّةٌ means , abstinence, to uphold purity.

طُعْمَةٌ : Provision ,eating meal. Both the words combinedly mean – purity of provision or abstinence from illegal earning. In fact Islam has given utmost emphasis on earning through lawful and permissible source for every Muslim. Because without ensuring earning through legal and permissible way no 'ibadah is acceptable in the eye of Islam.

Lessons from the Hadith

This Prophetic tradition gives a clear cut guideline regarding the most important thing in the life of a Muslim.

According to this Hadith the four characters as mentioned in this Hadith hold the highest degree amongst all favors of Allah. So if anybody combines these four characters as if he has got the most valuable things in this world, so much so that he will be considered as the most fortunate persons.

Generally the people consider that those who have wealth, good health , high official rank or high social or political position are fortunate ones, but this Hadith gives the real criteria of one's being a fortunate person in the eye of Islam . That if a person possesses the following four qualities is considered a fortunate person in reality. So if one is gifted with these four qualities, he has nothing to be worried if he is deprived from having much wealth , good health, high rank or influential position in the society. These are:

- The quality of fulfilling 'amanah' i.e. the trust and commitment.
- Truthfulness in speaking.
- Good character and nice behavior.
- And purity in earning of livelihood.

These four qualities are of such nature that one has to make continuous struggle and sincere efforts for obtaining these four qualities, so those who succeed to accumulate these four qualities in themselves, they need not to be worried if some other worldly favors are missing from them, like political power, excellent financial condition, good health or any other thing which are considered as the symbols of success in life. Because these four characters which have been mentioned are the secret of success in this life and the life Hereafter.

14th week

Lecture : 27 Any Form of Zulm is Forbidden.

عَنْ أَبِي ذَرِّ الْغِفَارِيِّ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - عَنِ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فِيمَا يَرْوِيهِ عَنْ رَبِّهِ تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالَى أَنَّهُ قَالَ « يَا عِبَادِي إِنِّي حَرَّمْتُ الظُّلْمَ عَلَى نَفْسِي وَجَعَلْتُهُ بَيْنَكُمْ مُحَرَّمًا فَلَا تَظَالَمُوا » (رواه مسلم).

Translation:

Narrated by Muslim on the authority of Abu Dharr al-Ghifari (May Allah be pleased with him), he reported that Allah's Messenger (Saw) has said that Allah the Exalted and Almighty said: "O my servants! I have made oppression (or injustice) Haram for Me and Haram amongst you. So do not oppress (do injustice to) one another.

Vocabulary:

عِبَادِي : noun, plural, sing- عَبْدٌ (ي is possessive pronoun), my servants.

حَرَّمْتُ : v.t. past, root word حرم, in the measure of فَعَّلْتُ (تَفَعَّلْتُ) -I have forbidden.

الظُّلْم : n. participle, injustice, oppression. (باب ضرب يضرب)

لَا تَظَالَمُوا : v,t, imperative, negative, (باب تفاعل), which gives the meaning reciprocally. Do not do injustice to each other, or Do not inflict oppression to the other.

Language learning

Word meaning:

Rules of nominative pronoun.

Ethical guideline of Hadith

Terminologies:

حَرَام : According to Islam everything which is not permissible in the eye of Shari'ah is called حَرَام i.e. illegal thing or forbidden, like wine, pork, interest etc. In another hadith, the prophet of Allah says: "الْحَلَالُ بَيِّنٌ وَالْحَرَامُ بَيِّنٌ" Halal is clear and apparent and likewise Haram is also clear and apparent.

Harm also implies a different meaning. i.e. the thing which is very much sacred and honorable. For example, The House of Allah is called المسجد الحرام. It is due to its high and exalted position, الشهر الحرام i.e. the sacred month like Dhul Hijja and Muharram.

الظُّلْم : literally this word means injustice. It is opposite to العدل which means justice. The real nature of ظلم is to put something at a position which is not suitable for it. (الظلم هو وضع الشيء على غير محله). For example if anyone deserves to enjoy some opportunity or right or privilege, but if he is deprived from this right or privilege, then it is called injustice.

Associating someone with Allah (Swt) in worship is the greatest form of injustice in the eye of Islam. So it has been identified as ظلم in the Qur'an. Because Allah, Who is the Creator of all existence including the mankind and Who is the Only Lord of the universe deserves exclusively for having the worship, gratitude and any sort of reverence. So if anyone worships someone and prostrates before him excepting Allah the Creator, he commits infact an act of injustice.

Teachings and lessons from the Hadith:

It is very much important to know justice and its position in the eye of Islam, if anyone wants to abstain from practicing injustice.

Literally 'justice' means to make equal, and technically it means to make proper judgment on the basis of reality and equality. Any deviation from reality is called injustice. This is why to associate anyone with Allah in worship is called 'dhulm' or injustice. Because to get worship is only justified right of that who has created him and provided him all that he needs. This is why Allah (Swt) has declared that:

"Verily joining others in worship with Allah is a great Zulm (wrong) indeed". (31:13).

Allah has declared in different places of the Qur'an that He does not practise injustice to anyone of His servants. He says:

"Allah is never unjust to His servants" (8:51, 22:10).

"I do not do the least injustice to My servants" (50:29).

This Hadith indicates to this teaching of the Qur'an that Allah Himself has forbidden doing injustice to anyone and such is His instruction to all of the mankind to abstain from all sorts of injustice, even in such a situation where the other party is your enemy or you hate them. Allah (Swt) says:

"And let not the enmity and hatred of others make you avoid justice. Be just, that is nearer to piety, Allah is Well-Acquainted with what you do." (5:8).

So if we want to be pious Muslims we must uphold justice in every situation and must avoid all kinds of injustice to everyone.

(رَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَه)

Translation:

Narrated by Ibn Majah on the authority of Abul 'Abbas Sahl ibn Sa'd al Sa'idi (May Allah be pleased with him), he said: that a man came to the Messenger of Allah and said: 'Indicate me to such an action that, if I do it, Allah will love me, and also the people. The messenger of Allah (Swt) replied: "Observe al-Zuhd (the character of renouncing to be inclined) to the world, then Allah (Pbuh) will love you, and observe al-Zuhd (uninclining tendency) concerning that which are with the people, then the people will love you.

(باب سمع يسمع) : v.t. I did it اذا عملته : اذا عملته : If I do this.

(باب أكرم يكرم) : v.t. love me, احبني الله : Allah will love me.

(باب فتح يفتح) : v.t. imperative (فعل الأمر) : ازهد renounce, dislike.

: unto the world.

(باب أكرم يكرم) : v.t. will love, يحبك الله : Allah will love you, يحبك الناس : people will love you.

Terminology:

al-Zuhd :

The word al-zuhd is used to denote the following meanings:

- (a) To abstain from s.th. out of disliking.
- (b) to be a sincere devout to religion e.g. زاهد
- (c) asceticism, avoiding even the lawful comfort out of the fear of being accountable to Allah in the Hereafter.
- (d) opposite of inclination and attraction to anything.

In other words it implies forsaking the present life and subduing passions and lust for worldly affairs.

Zuhd unto the world means not to be attracted to gain the worldly fortune.

Zuhd unto that which the people possess, means not to vie each other in attaining fortune, grasping large area of landed property, erecting palatial buildings, acquiring the dignified position in the society or organization through conspiracy and illegal way.

Lessons and teachings from the Hadith:

(i) This prophetic Hadith determines two great matters:

- (a) Observing zuhd unto this world is the main cause for gaining Allah's love and His pleasure.
- (b) Observing zuhd unto what are being possessed by the people is most likely the main cause for gaining the popularity among the people.

(ii) Some of the people wrongly believe that al-zuhd is showing total abstinence to even the permissible things in this life, like marriage, doing business for attaining fortune, building comfortable house to dwell in, possessing personal car for transportation, making nice attire to dress up, preparing tasty meals etc.

It is not the true spirit of Islam: Allah (Swt) says: Say (O Muhammad!) “Who has forbidden the adornment with clothes given by Allah which He has produced for His slaves, and all kinds of halal things of food?” (7:32).

It is reported to have said by the Prophet (Saw) that “Surely Allah loves to see the sign of His favour on his servant.”

It necessarily means that if Allah bestows someone with riches he should expose the sign of Allah's favour unto him through helping the distressed, doing welfare to the people, offering gifts to the relatives, building nice house, wearing befitting dress etc.

(iii) al-Zuhd does not mean to renounce what is Halal nor to turn ones back to life in this world. Rather it is to have a firm belief for Allah's bounties and not longing for people's belongings and not to seek favour from them.

"Allah (Swt) has said in the Qur'an: ["Say (O Muhammad) : Who has forbidden the adornment with clothes given by Allah, which He has produced for His slaves, and all kinds of Halal (lawful) things of food?" (7:32)

(iv) Zuhd may be classified into three categories : e.g.

(a) An obligatory zuhd. It obliges one's for commitment to avoid what is Haram and to accept what is Halal.

(b) Superior class of Zuhd (zuhd par excellence). It is to give up a portion of Halal out of fear of involvement with what is Haram.

(c) Precautionary Zuhd. It is to avoid all those things which create some suspicion about being undoubtedly halal (shubha) and which cannot be done with full satisfaction of mind. A pious man should avoid all such kind of things.

عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ - ﷺ - قَالَ " أُوقِدَتِ النَّارُ أَلْفَ سَنَةٍ فَأَبْيَضَتْ ثُمَّ أُوقِدَتْ أَلْفَ سَنَةٍ فَاحْمَرَّتْ ثُمَّ أُوقِدَتْ أَلْفَ سَنَةٍ فَاسْوَدَّتْ فَهِيَ سَوْدَاءُ كَاللَّيْلِ الْمُظْلِمِ (رواه ابن ماجه)

QUICK LESSONS:

Do good deeds in order to avoid punishment in hellfire

EXPLANATIONS:

According to this hadith, the Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) described the color of Hell-Fire. He said that it was kindled for one thousand years and turned white. Then it was kindled for another thousand years and it turned red. Finally, it was kindled for another thousand years and it turned black like the darkest night. This hadith serves as a reminder of how severe punishment in Hell is going to be, so we should strive to do good deeds in order to avoid such a fate. It also teaches us that Allah is All-Powerful and can do whatever He wills with His creation; no matter how powerful something may seem, Allah has ultimate power over all things.

QUICK LESSONS:

Perform sujud regularly as a way to show our devotion and obedience towards God

EXPLANATIONS:

The second hadith teaches us about the importance of prostration in Islam. It is narrated by Abu Hurairah that the Prophet said that all of mankind will be consumed by fire except for one thing - the mark of prostration. Allah has forbidden fire to consume this mark as a sign of His mercy and protection for those who perform this act. This hadith reminds us to be grateful for Allah's blessings and to always remember Him in our prayers. It also encourages us to perform sujud regularly as a way to show our devotion and obedience towards Him.

The concept of Hell in Islam

It is believed that Jahannam is an ever-flaming pit of fire. The fire in Jahannam is of the highest heat and is black in color. Jahannam is the place from which every human and jinn are warned and are told to refrain from sins. The punishment in hell is endless for non-believers and back biters, while for Muslims the punishment depends on the sins committed by them.

When the hell was created by Allah, he kept the scorching fire burning in Jahannam for a thousand years. Once the Jahannam was fiery red he kept it burning for another more thousand years till it turned bright white, then finally Allah heated it again for another last thousand years, the flames became pitch black from bright white. It is also believed that the flame of Jahannam is 70 times more harmful than the worldly fire.

Jahannam consists of various venomous and hideous animals such as venomous donkeys whose bites will not be soothed for 40 years in Jahannam. Also, snakes and lizards are present in Jahannam. The sinners in Jahannam will be provided puss, blood, and harsh boiling water to drink and a tree growing there called Zaqqum which has prickly thorny branches to eat. Hence Allah warned humans and Jinns from Jahannam. Jahannam has seven levels, let us take a look at these levels in detail.

Levels of Jahannam

Jahannam is divided into seven levels that are situated below each other based on the gravity of the sinners. So, the least painful level that is level one is at the top and the most painful level is situated in the depths of the Jahannam. The temperature and the severity of the punishment of Jahannam keeps increasing as one descends through the levels. Each level is made for different types of sinners and punishments. Let us have a look at them.

1. Jahannam, or the first level of hell: This level is for Muslims who were sinful in the world. It has the least heat among all the levels and has the least painful punishment for the sinners. As the sinners enter through its gates their faces will be burned and the fire will eat their flesh. Here Allah will renew their flesh every time after they are burned.

2. Ladah, or the second gate to Jahannam: This level is situated below Jahannam, and it is for people and Jinn who did not believe in Allah, rejected the Prophet's messages and did not believe in them as the messengers of Allah. The main punishment in this level is that fire will eat away one's organs one by one both externally and internally, and will finally destroy their body.

3. Saqar, the third level of Jahannam:

The third level of Jahannam and it is situated below Ladah. The punishment for the people here is that fire will eat up their flesh but not bones. The four reasons for which people land up in this level of Jahannam are:

They did not perform Salah (prayer).

They did not offer food to the poor.

They used to talk vainly to those who in vain that is they used to follow the path of unjust and falsehood.

They refused the existence of the Day of Reward and Resurrection (Qayamat).

4. Al-Hutamah, the fourth gate of hell: In this level, situated below Saqar, it is believed that the fire here will burn the sinners to the bones and emblaze their heart and inner organs. The fire will start from their feet and then go up to their heart. It is believed that the sinners will cry to the point where their tear glands will dry out, the blood will dry out, and their tears will be of the huge amount that even if a ship was to be sailed in the pool of their tears it will do so easily.

5. Jaheem, the fifth level of Jahannam:

It is believed that it lies below Al-Hutamah, which is a big piece of coal and is bigger than the lowest level. Sinners will be thrown here because for three reasons:

They did not give correct belief to Allah.

Declined to give the correct right to the creations.

Did not encourage feeding the poor.

6. Saeer, the sixth level: This level of Jahannam is situated below Jaheem. This level has been kindling since it was made. It consists of 300 castles which have 300 huts each in which there are 300 rooms each and, in each room, there are 300 different types of penalties. The pain here is unimaginable, unbearable and it is very painful. Here there are scorpions, snakes, chain, ropes and whatnot. Also, it has a pit of Agony which is the most painful punishment in the whole Jahannam.

7. Al-Hawwiyah, the last level of Jahannam: This is the last and the worst level of hell. It is the seventh level of jahannam, situated below Saeer. It is said that no sinner will be released from this level. There is pitch darkness on this level. Backbiters and non-believers are punished here. The sinners in this level will be crushed under mountains with them lying on their faces. The hands of the sinners will be bound to their necks and their necks to their legs. And Zabanniyah(angels of Janhannam) surely will stand on them. The hands of the angels are supposed to be made of strong iron and as punishment to the sinners they will beat the sinners with their bare hands. The Quran says that Al-Hawwiyah is the level in which kindled fire will embrace the sinner as a mother embraces her son.

The concept of hell as well as the gates of hell or the levels of Jahannam are described in quite detail in the the Quran and it warns Muslims to stay away to sins identified in Islam. Asking Allah for forgiveness and repentance in Islam is the way to expiate for sins and stay blessed.
