

Spring-23

1)

Change the following sentences into indirect narration:

a) "Good heavens! I have made great progress in my studies". Reeham said.

b) She said to her companions, "Let us not overlook the role of community engagement in supporting students' success."

c) My mother asks me, "What is your problem."

Wa

d) The teacher said, "The only constant in life change."

e. The woman said to her son, "May Allah bless you."

Answer:

a) Reeham exclaimed with joy that he had made great progress in his studies.

b) She proposed her companions that they shouldn't overlook the role of community

- engagement in supporting students' success.
- c) My mother asks me what my problem is.
 - d) The teacher said that the only constant in life is change.
 - e) The woman prayed that Allah might bless her son.

Spring-22

5)

Change the speech into the opposite:

- a) Masum says to me, "I visited the museum with my parents".
- b) Mother said to me, "Do you understand the topic after class lecture?"
- c) They said to their friends, "Let's go together to achieve anything".
- d) "What a lovely bird the dove is!"- said the boy.
- e) "Would you help me if I am in danger?"- he told me.

Answer:

- a) Masum tells me that he visited the museum with his parents.
- b) Mother asked me that if I understood the topic after the lecture.
- c) They proposed their friends they should go together to achieve anything.
- d) He exclaimed with wonder that the dove is a very lovely bird.
- e) He asked me if I would help him when he was in danger.

Spring-19

4)

Change the following sentences into indirect speech:

- a) The girl said to me, "I have been waiting here for an hour."
- b) He said, "How amazing the game was!"
- c) Father said to me, "When will you complete your study?"
- d) The teacher said to the students, " Don't copy from others in the examination."

e) Mother said to me, "May Allah save you from danger."

Answer:

a) The girl told me that she had been waiting there for an hour.

b) He exclaimed with wonder that the game had been very amazing.

c) Father asked me when I would complete my study.

d) The teacher ordered the students not to copy from others in the examination.

e) Mother prayed that Allah might save me from danger.

Spring-18

6)

Change the following speech as directed:

a) The teacher said to the student, "Consult your matter with the chairman." (change the speech)

b) Write a sentence in direct speech following interrogative pattern using 'Why'.

c) Mother told her son, "Morning shows the day." (change the speech)

d) The poor man said. "If I were the owner of this palace!" (change the speech)

e) The player exclaimed with sorrow he has lost the first prize. (correct the sentence) (fill in the gap).

Answer:

a) The teacher ordered the student to consult his matter with the chairman.

b) He said to me, "Why did you go there?"

c) Mother told her son that morning shows the day.

d) The poor man wished that he had been the owner of that place.

e) The player exclaimed with sorrow that he had lost the first prize.

Spring-17

6)

Change the following speech as directed:

- a) The teacher said to the student, "Come to me with your problem." (change the speech)
- b) The man said to the boy, "What do you want to buy from the shop?".
- c) Mother told her son, "If you face any difficulty in any work, you can ask my help." (Change the speech)
- d) The poor man said to the boy, "May I be a king of a country." (change the speech)
- e) The player exclaimed with joy he has won the first prize (correct the sentence)

Answer:

- a) The teacher ordered the student to go to him with his problem.
- b) The man asked the boy what he wanted to buy from the shop.
- c) Mother told her son that if he faced any difficulty in any work, he could ask her help.

d) The poor man wished to the boy that he might be a king of a country.

e) The player exclaimed with joy that he had won the first prize.